

BORDER COUNTY NOTES.

Friday, May 26, 1905.

CARROLL.

Carroll county expended $19,800 last year in building bridges.

Fla J. Williams, a prominent citizen of Carrollton, died of paralysis Monday.

Mrs. H. B. Turpin, aged 60 years, died suddenly at her home in Carrollton Thursday evening.

Marvin Dougherty, aged 23 years, died of heart trouble and dropsy at his home, near Hale, Saturday.

Editor Martin of the Tina Herald returned last week from an eastern trip and is glad to be home again.

Joe Allamang of near Tina shipped 25,000 pounds of wool to Springfield, Ills., for which he received 27 cents a pound.

Virgil Conkling and Hugh K. Rea, prominent lawyers of Carrollton, will go to Kansas City to continue the practice of law.

The Missouri river is cutting a new bed on the farm of Mrs. Flora Warren, near Wakenda. Her house and barn will have to be moved to prevent their falling into the river.

The 34th annual commencement of the Carrollton high school was held Wednesday evening. The graduating class was composed of eight boys and 17 girls.

Thos. Archibald and Smit Settles of Carrollton have rented 1,500 acres of pasture land in Chariton county and have bought 400 head of cattle to graze on the tract.

Frank Yehle of Carrollton authorized Sheriff Magee to offer an additional reward of $300 for the apprehension and return of defaulting circuit clerk, Roy Charles. Yehle is one of Charles' bondsmen. Governor Folk had previously offered $300 reward for Charles.

MARRIAGES.

Ed Hanovan of Hale and Miss Minnie Brandon of Brunswick.

John H. Ranzelman and Miss Rosa Heil, both of Norborne.

Arthur Neat and Miss Cora Elder, both of Wakenda.

HOWARD.

Street fakirs have to pay a license of $25 before crying their wares in Fayette.

Mrs. Mary Cashill, a former resident of Fayette, died recently at San Bernadino, Cal.

Mrs. T. M. Crump, aged 27 years, died Friday of consumption at her home in New Franklin.

Dr. J. C. Maple of Armstrong has written a biography of the late Dr. W. Pope Yeaman which will soon be published.

Over 100,000 pounds of wool has been bought by Fayette merchants recently. This means that at least $25,000 has been distributed in that section.

Miss Leona Tindall of Fayette has been appointed as first maid of honor from Missouri at the Confederate re-union to be held at Louisville, Ky., in June.

Mrs. Elizabeth P. Dunn, aged 63 years, died at her home in Armstrong Tuesday. The remains were buried in the Roanoke cemetery Wednesday.

Noah Lynch of the high school at Armstrong was awarded the scholarship offered by Westminster college for the student who made the best grade during the year.

Mrs. Mary Easton of Fayette sustained a stroke of paralysis Wednesday morning which left her unable to speak or swallow. Mrs. Easton has been blind for a number of years.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Besgrove of Fayette sailed from New York Saturday on their way to visit their old home, Crooked Way, Kingsbury Somersetshire, England.

O. H. Turner of the New Franklin News has leased the Rocheport Democrat. Mr. Turner will operate both newspaper properties. Miss Annie Chapman of Rocheport will be local editress of the Democrat.

The commencement exercises of the Fayette public school were held Thursday evening. The program consisted entirely of orations and essays on Shakespeare's works and was fittingly designated as "An Evening with Shakespeare." There were 15 graduates.

Howard county will give a bond of $5,000 to guarantee the right-of-way to the Missouri Central Electric railway. The bond will be filed with the promoters of the road, the money to be used in buying the right-of-way when work is started on the road.

Willard Vivian, col., robbed a store in Fayette Saturday night by breaking through a broken window and opening a money-drawer. He secured $7 in cash. Sunday he returned $3, but on his failure to return the balance the proprietor had him arrested. Vivian pleaded guilty to petit larceny and was sentenced to 60 days in jail.

Vaughn Edmonds of New Franklin met with a serious accident last week while at Lewis, Kansas. He was trying to drive a mule colt through a gate when it suddenly turned and kicked him in the face, one of the hoofs striking him in the eye, breaking his glasses and driving particles of glass into one of his eyes, injuring it so seriously that it is feared he will lose the sight.

MARRIAGES.

Clarence O'Bryan and Miss Annie Todd, both of New Franklin.

LINN.

The G. A. R. state encampment was held at Brookfield last week.

Watt W. Pierce, collector of Clay township, died Sunday night of heart trouble.

A farmer of near Marceline is exhibiting a bunch of bluegrass 21 inches long which he cut on the 2nd day of May.

John H. Andrews was unanimously elected Monday as superintendent of the Linneus public schools for a third term.

Moses Glem, Jr., the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Moses Glem of near Linneus, died of stomach trouble Saturday.

Mrs. Davis, a former resident of Meadville, was killed in the tornado at Snyder, Okla. Her daughter, Miss Alice Dunn, received serious injuries.

The remains of Roy Doty, a well-known young man of Brookfield, who died at La Junta, Colo., last week, were interred at Brookfield Saturday.

The saloon of C. D. Veal at Bucklin was burglarized Thursday night and $10 taken from the cash-drawer. The burglar was evidently local talent, but no arrests have yet been made.

The Superior Stacker Co. of Linneus is doing a good business. Five carloads of stackers and rakes were shipped to various points Monday. A force of 25 men is now employed.

J. H. Brown, through the columns of the Laclede Blade, offers $100 to the one furnishing sufficient evidence to convict the party who poisoned his bird dog Saturday night. The poison-between a good and a poor baking powder would not amount for a family's supply to one dollar a year. The poor powder would cause doctors' bills many times this.

Dr. PRICE'S cream Baking Powder

is the most economical in the end, because it goes further in leavening and insures perfect, wholesome food.

When ordering of the grocer always call for Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder by name for good health and good food. It makes the finest cake, puddings, flapjacks, biscuits and bread.

PRICE BAKING POWDER CO.,
CHICAGO.

NOTE.—There are many imitation baking powders which are sold from five cents to twenty-five cents a pound. They should be carefully avoided as they are made from alum and are unhealthful.

ing was evidently spite-work.

J. W. Anderson's shoeshop was entered by an unknown party at Laclede Friday night of last week and robbed of about $12 worth of tools and two pairs of shoes. The job is thought to have been done by a tramp shoemaker, as tools were taken that would be of no value to anyone except a shoemaker.

A. G. Sorge of New Boston perhaps has the most luxuriant growth of beard of any man in Missouri. He is 5 feet 10 inches tall, and when standing erect his whiskers touch his feet. Mr. Sorge has been a citizen of Linn and Sullivan counties for 40 years. He wears his long beard plaited and tucked in his bosom and says it is of very little inconvenience to him. Ten years ago his beard was closely shorn and the ends were clipped only a few weeks ago. It grows at the rate of nearly six inches a year.

MARRIAGES.

Pearl R. Stucker and Miss Icy Lewis, both of Brookfield.

Eugene Mapes and Miss Ethelyn McKisson, both of Meadville.

David D. Mason of Brookfield and Mrs. Allie Henderson of Laclede.

LIVINGSTON.

Mrs. L. U. DeBolt, former superintendent of the industrial home for girls at Chillicothe, has accepted the superintendency of the state Odd Fellows' Orphans' home located at Liberty, Mo., at a salary of $100 a month.

Xanthe Dowell, a 12-year-old girl of Chillicothe, was seriously injured Tuesday afternoon by a horse kicking her. The horse was hitched to a telephone post, near the sidewalk, and kicked the little girl as she was passing.

A burglar entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marcum in Chillicothe Monday night and secured a valuable watch, a revolver and $4 in money. The burglar entered by the kitchen door. Judging from the remains found on the kitchen table the prowler ate a hearty meal while there.

Some scoundrel set fire Thursday night to a frame building on the hunting preserve in the extreme southeastern part of Livingston county. It was formerly owned by Col. Silby and Capt. Smith of Chillicothe. The building was destroyed and was uninsured. The property had been sold to a man in Kansas two days before the fire.

James Bench, one of the most widely known and popular farmers of Livingston county, had an exceedingly narrow escape from death Monday. Mr. Bench went to the hitching-rack, near Swetland's store, in Chillicothe to get his team. As he started to untie his horse a horse standing near his kicked him, knocking him down. He fell at the hoofs of his horses, which became frightened and began to paw at him. Before he could roll out of the way they had kicked him a number of times. Assistance soon reached him and he was carried into a nearby drugstore where his wounds were dressed. His injuries are not serious but very painful.

MARRIAGES.

Eugene E. Wilder and Miss Nancy M. Keith, both of Chillicothe township.

MAÇON.

H. Wirt Butler died at his home in Atlanta Monday. Mr. Butler was a prominent Democrat and had filled several important offices.

The business men of Macon offer substantial prizes for the best kept mile of road and for the second best; also for the best kept half mile of road on the seven rural routes leading out of Macon.

A barn belonging to W. L. Chasteen near Dodd, was burned Sunday night. Among the contents destroyed was a valuable horse. Mr. Chasteen saw parties running from the barn and there is but little doubt that the fire was of incendiary origin.

Fred Altman was tried at Macon Monday for assaulting Fred Chasteen a 16-year-old boy with a billet. Altman denied using any instrument of any sort, but said he slapped the boy for his insolent behavior. The affair occurred at White Oak church in Valley township. The defendant was acquitted after five minutes' deliberation by the jury.

Mrs. James Higbee of Macon was found unconscious at her home Thursday afternoon from a dose of 40 grains of morphine taken with suicidal intent. A stomach pump was used and the greater portion of the poison was removed before the system had time to absorb it. When the rubber tube of the pump was placed between her lips she bit it off and muttered that she did not wish to live. After 24-hours hard work on the part of two physicians and four nurses she was out of danger. She has made several previous attempts to commit suicide. Domestic troubles prompted the act.

The Macon officers were requested Friday to apprehend Dessie Ronchetto, an Italian girl of Bevier, who was supposed to have run off with Charles Varello a boarder with the Ronchetts. The officers located the girl and put her in charge of her mother. Varello was in town at the same time, but was not with the girl. When interviewed he disclaimed any intention of eloping with Dessie. The girl who is only 16 returned home with her mother and promised to be good if her parents would treat her right.

MARRIAGES.

E. F. Scofield and Miss Callie Curry, both of La Plata.

Steven K. Parkhurst and Miss Mary L. Guffey, both of Bevier.

Charley C. Wilson of Clarence and Miss Ollie Edwards of Jacksonville.

RANDOLPH.

R. H. Jones, school commissioner of Howard county, has been employed as principal of the Higbee public school.

The Higbee Blues were defeated by a local team in a 10-inning baseball game at Hannibal Sunday afternoon by a score of 6 to 5.

The 15-year-old son of Dan Rice of Moberly was painfully injured Thursday afternoon by falling from a swing. His ankle and back were badly wrenched.

Rich R. Correll, who has had the Clark Chronicle leased for several months, purchased the plant Monday and is now editor and proprietor.

Mrs. Lee Rogers, aged 82 years, died recently at her home, near Huntsville. She was one of 17 children, 11 of whom lived to nearly four score years.

Mrs. Chas. Williams of Moberly criticises the editor of the Democrat for terming a fistic encounter between Lessie McDonald of Salisbury and herself at Union station as a hair-pulling. The term was too mild. The quarrel was the result of the McDonald woman holding clandestine meetings with Mrs. Williams' husband and writing letters asking him for money.

Paul Richter, a swindler, was convicted at Magdeburg, Germany, Monday for defrauding the endowment rank of the K. P. lodge in Chicago out of $3,000 by forging death certificates of himself and wife. He was tried before United States Consul Frank S. Hannah and was sentenced to the Magdeburg prison for three years. Frank Hannah is a Moberly product.

Cal Brown of Huntsville, who was shot in the shoulder by Stacy Smith of Salisbury last April was subjected to an X-ray examination last week. The ball was located under the shoulder-blade. The wound gives him no trouble and he will not have the bullet removed.

MARRIAGES.

Harvey Hess of Moberly and Miss Mary Justus of Howard county.

J. E. Weible of Independence, Kas., and Miss Nora J. Lewis of Huntsville.

Lawrence L. Crist and Miss Allie Cavanaugh, both of Darksville.

Arthur C. Patterson and Miss Emma Hisgen, both of Moberly.

Henry Hinton and Miss Stella Grimes, both of Moberly.

SALINE.

Judge H. B. Napton of Marshall is the author of a book entitled, "On the Santa Fe Trail."

Tom Marshall of Blackwater will build a new hotel at Marshall if the city will furnish the building lot.

Thomas Mahard died at his home, near Marshall, Thursday morning of heart disease at the age of 50 years.

The contract was let Monday night for water-works and electric light plant improvements at Slater to cost $11,955.35.

Dr. W. L. Whittington of St. Joseph was elected superintendent of the Missouri colony for the feeble-minded at Marshall Friday.

Frank Martin, a highly-esteemed citizen of Marshall, died Saturday night after a long illness from a complication of diseases.

John and Will Hughes are in the county jail at Marshall awaiting trial. They are charged with disturbing the peace of their father, Patrick Hughes, who lives five miles west of Marshall.

The Democrat-News of Marshall places Capt. J. C. Wallace and John C. Crawley of Keytesville on the list of distinguished visitors attending the Harrison-Morrison-Fuller trial at Marshall last week. Mr. Crawley was compared to King Saul—"that he stood head and shoulders above the assemblage." Beside his marked mental and physical superiority the editor gives him credit for an appetite out of the ordinary.

George M. Buie of Marshall met with an accident Thursday afternoon which will cost him a new wagon. His team was on the C. & A. railroad crossing when a train reached the point and tore the wagon into pieces. Mr. Buie was out of the wagon fastening a gate at the time of accident. The team did not become frightened nor attempt to run away.

MARRIAGES.

Ellis G. Campbell of Bates City and Miss Lillian Rowena Taylor of Blackburn.

B. N. Bliss of Marshall and Mrs. Sarah Stephens of Muscogee, I. T.

James P. Randall of Winchester, Ky., and Miss Francis E. Thompson of Slater.

Michael Reilly and Miss Ollie Vivian Jones, both of Slater.

John L. Duley of Napton and Miss Ida Lee Collins of Slater.

THINGS WORTH KNOWING

in the matter of making a loan, are often not known by the borrower.

He ought to know that he can pay part or all of his loan before maturity if he so desires.

He ought to know that the form of the note and mortgage are such as best protect him.

He ought to know that there are different kinds of money as there are different kinds of people.

He ought to know all about his title.

All these things are well worth knowing and are certain to be known when your loan is made by
